Dear Returning and Prospective Fatherhood Partnership Members,

Over the last seven years, the Alameda County Fathers Corps has focused on creating a father-friendly system of care and support for Alameda County families. Both providers and fathers have consistently identified the lack of easily accessible father-specific support services as a barrier to fathers being fully engaged in the lives of their children. Fathers feel as though they are tackling the work of being a good father alone. To respond to this identified barrier, in 2018, the Fathers Corps established the Fatherhood Partnership.

The Purpose of the Fatherhood Partnership is to build the capacity of participating agencies to authentically and effectively engage and support fathers/father-figures by creating and offering father-specific parenting education and support groups and resources. The Fatherhood Partnership Training/Capacity Building

Over nine months, the Fatherhood Partnership will provide an intensive capacity-building training series, using the World Café training model, to enhance staff’s ability to offer father-specific support groups by focusing on the following:
• Tools and strategies to manage the logistics associated with creating and launching father-specific services, conducting outreach to fathers, and facilitating small group discussions with fathers on father-centered topics
• The importance of communicating the unique and critical role fathers play in the optimal development of their children
• Best practices for convening virtual fathers’ groups
• Strategies for implementing the Father Friendly Principles

Participation Requirements:

1. Participating agencies must identify three staff to participate in a virtual 9-month training series.
2. Staff attending the training series should be the same staff facilitating and supervising the father-specific groups.
3. Participating agencies are expected to participate in all trainings and evaluation and data collection activities.
4. Participating agencies agree to begin offering father-specific parenting education/support groups by the end of January 2021.
