A project with First 5 Alameda County

THE CHALLENGE

Kindergarten readiness is made up of one foundational and three advanced building blocks (Applied Survey Research, 2015 School Readiness in Alameda County Report).

Only forty-four percent of Alameda County Kindergarteners were strong in all domains of Kindergarten readiness.

Children who did not attend preschool and English language learners were less likely to be ready for school.

FAMILIES ARE SAYING:

“We are very grateful for this program. For the Latino community.”

“We [My son is] ...more social and comfortable being around other kids, he learned to listen to story time and he improved his Spanish a lot. He loves coming to the library, too.”

“We [We] take him to the library more frequently, read books, show him colors and shapes.”
